Must try FOOD

Vegetarian Paella

Traditional Spanish vegetarian paella (paella de verduras) combines short-grain Bomba rice, rich saffron, and sweet smoked paprika with seasonal garden vegetables like artichokes, green beans, and bell peppers. Cooked without stirring after the broth goes in, it develops a prized crispy bottom crust called socarrat.

Sopa de Ajo (Garlic Soup)

A soup dish made with bread and egg poached in chicken broth, and laced with garlic, paprika and, as required, sherry; traditionally a winter soup, it is cooked slowly until the desired degree of thickness is achieved.

Churros con Chocolate

Crispy cinnamon dusted sticks of pure delight, served with piping hot chocolate for dipping; this delicacy can be enjoyed at any time of day and are available from street vendors, chocolatería and fine dining establishments.
