

11 DAYS ULTIMATE RED SEA DIVING EXPERIENCE

Day 1. Al Lith – Embarkation

Transfer to the port of Al Lith on the Red Sea coast south of Jeddah and embark your dedicated live-aboard dive vessel. Safety briefings, equipment checks and dive site orientation. Evening welcome dinner as the ship sets sail into the extraordinary waters of the Red Sea. Overnight on board.

Day 2–3. Canyon Reef & Mar Mar Island

Two-day dive programme at Canyon Reef — one of the Red Sea's most dramatic underwater landscapes, with vertical drop-offs plunging to 50 metres, dense soft coral gardens and large pelagic species including grey reef sharks and eagle rays. Mar Mar Island dive site features extraordinary coral tables and clouds of anthias fish. Day and night dives. Overnight on board.

Day 4–5. North Dohra Island & Gorgonia Reef

North Dohra Island — spectacular dive site with towering coral columns and gorgonian fans. Gorgonia Reef — named for the enormous sea fans (gorgonians) that carpet the walls at 20–40 metres. The night dive at Gorgonia reveals sleeping sea turtles and hunting cephalopods. Overnight on board.

Day 6–7. Sha'ab Ammar, Choppy Reef & Danak Island

Sha'ab Ammar Reef — an extensive reef plateau teeming with glassfish, trevally and barracuda. Choppy Reef dive features open water drift dives. Danak Island — one of the most remote and pristine dive sites, with virtually undisturbed coral ecosystems. Overnight on board.

Day 8–9. Mudarr Reef, Jubarra & Eagle Island

Day 10. Mubarak Reef, Dorrish Island & Farasan Banks

Final day at the legendary Farasan Banks — one of the Red Sea's most remote and spectacular reef systems, accessible only by live-aboard. Mubarak Reef and Dorrish Island offer extraordinary coral gardens virtually untouched by recreational diving. Overnight on board.

Day 11. Return to Al Lith & Departure

Morning return to the port of Al Lith. Disembarkation and transfer to Jeddah or onward destination.
