Must try FOOD

Paella

Paella is Spain's most famous rice dish, originating from Valencia; traditionally cooked with saffron-infused rice, it includes ingredients such as seafood, chicken, rabbit, or vegetables, depending on the region; prepared in a wide, shallow pan, paella is known for its vibrant flavors, golden color, and rich culinary heritage enjoyed across Spain.

Tortilla Española

Tortilla Española, also known as the Spanish omelette, is a classic dish made with eggs, potatoes, and onions, although some versions omit onions; cooked until golden and tender, it is enjoyed warm or cold as a tapa, snack, or main meal; its simple ingredients make it a timeless Spanish favorite.

Patatas Bravas

Patatas Bravas is one of Madrid's most popular tapas dishes; it features crispy fried potato cubes served with a spicy tomato based brava sauce, often topped with creamy aioli; loved by locals and visitors alike, this flavorful appetizer is commonly enjoyed with drinks and is a staple in Madrid's vibrant tapas culture.
