Must try FOOD

Patatas Bravas

Patatas Bravas is one of Madrid's most popular tapas dishes. It features crispy fried potato cubes served with a spicy tomato based brava sauce, often topped with creamy aioli. Loved by locals and visitors alike, this flavorful appetizer is commonly enjoyed with drinks and is a staple in Madrid's vibrant tapas culture.

Paella Valenciana

Contains short-grain rice, chicken, rabbit, flat green beans and large white butter beans called garrofón and flavored with olive oil, sweet red paprika, saffron, fresh tomato, rosemary and water that turns into a rich broth; snails or duck are also common traditional additions.

Churros con Chocolate

Crispy cinnamon dusted sticks of pure delight, served with piping hot chocolate for dipping; this delicacy can be enjoyed at any time of day and are available from street vendors, chocolatería and fine dining establishments.
