Must try FOOD

Patatas Bravas

Patatas Bravas is one of Madrid's most popular tapas dishes. It features crispy fried potato cubes served with a spicy tomato based brava sauce, often topped with creamy aioli. Loved by locals and visitors alike, this flavorful appetizer is commonly enjoyed with drinks and is a staple in Madrid's vibrant tapas culture.

Suquet de Peix

A famous and popular fish stew, made with tender white fish – strong-tasting and firm textured, potatoes and a fragrant garlic-almond-saffron broth; the dish is popular throughout the coastal region of Catalonia.

Arròs negre

A Valencian and Catalan rice-based dish made with cuttlefish or squid and garlic, somewhat similar to seafood paella; it is often referred to as paella negra, although it is traditionally not called a paella even though it is prepared in a similar manner.
