

7 DAYS

EXPERIENCE THE EXCITING NEW WORLD OF QIDDIYA CITY

Day 1. Riyadh – Arrival & City Tour

Arrive in Riyadh. Afternoon tour: Masmak Fortress — the historic mud-brick citadel that witnessed the pivotal 1902 raid; National Museum — eight galleries tracing Arabian history from prehistoric times. Evening at Diriyah UNESCO site — the extraordinary birthplace of the Saudi state in the restored Wadi Hanifah valley. Overnight in Riyadh.

Day 2. Riyadh – Edge of the World Tour

Full day: morning drive to the extraordinary Edge of the World (Jebel Fihrayn) — the dramatic escarpment of the Tuwayq Mountains, 90 km northwest of Riyadh, where the plateau ends in a sheer 300-metre cliff dropping to the vast Nafud desert below. The views from the escarpment edge are among the most extraordinary in the Arabian Peninsula — seemingly standing at the very edge of the Earth. Afternoon: return to Riyadh. Overnight in Riyadh.

Day 3. Qiddiya City – Arrival & Theme Park

Drive to Qiddiya City — the extraordinary entertainment mega-city rising on the Tuwayq Escarpment, 40 km southwest of Riyadh. Check in to the resort. Afternoon: guided Qiddiya City Tour — explore the masterplan, the completed entertainment zones and the extraordinary cliff-edge developments. Six Flags Qiddiya (the world's largest Six Flags entertainment park, with the world's fastest and longest roller coasters). Overnight in Qiddiya City.

Day 4. Qiddiya – Full Day Theme Park Activities

Full day at Qiddiya's extraordinary theme parks and entertainment zones: Six Flags Qiddiya — the extraordinary mega-park with record-breaking rides including the Falcon's Flight (the world's longest, tallest and fastest roller coaster, with a section running along the Tuwayq Escarpment cliff edge). The Aquarabia water park. Ninja Kingdom and Driving Island — go-karting and motorsport experiences. Overnight in Qiddiya City.

Day 5. Qiddiya – Sports Complex & Escarpment Activities

Morning: Qiddiya's extraordinary sports complex — world-class facilities including an Olympic-standard sports city, BMX tracks, a mountain biking network on the escarpment and a shooting range. Afternoon: escarpment hiking trails with extraordinary cliff-edge panoramas over the Nafud desert. Evening: entertainment dining experiences in Qiddiya City. Overnight in Qiddiya City.

Day 6. Qiddiya – Cultural District & Final Thrills

Morning: Qiddiya's Cultural District — the concert and performing arts venues, including the extraordinary amphitheatre carved into the Tuwayq Escarpment cliffs. Afternoon: final theme park experiences — any rides or attractions not yet explored, or a final round on the Qiddiya Golf Course along the escarpment edge. Overnight in Qiddiya City.

Day 7. Qiddiya to Riyadh – Departure

Morning at leisure in Qiddiya. Drive back to Riyadh. Transfer to King Khalid International Airport for onward travel.

Must try FOOD

Mathloutha

A traditional layered heritage dish made by stacking a base of jareesh (crushed wheat), a middle layer of cooked vegetables or bread and a top layer of rice, finished with tender meat like lamb or chicken; it is often served at special gatherings and celebrations rather than as an everyday meal.

Muhammar

A traditional dish from the Eastern Province of Saudi and Bahrain, it is a sweet rice dish seasoned with spices and date molasses, usually eaten with fried or grilled fish; the rice is parboiled and then steamed.

Kabeba

A classic Middle Eastern dish consisting of a filling of ground beef surrounded by layers of a ground beef and cracked burghul (bulgur) wheat mixture; commonly found in single-serve preparations shaped into conical, fried, meatballs.
