Fideua

A seafood dish that is similar to paella and arròs a banda, but with pasta noodles instead of rice; its main ingredients are pasta noodles, fish, and shellfish; it is usually seasoned with lemon.

La Bomba

A Spanish potato dish usually served as tapas or used in paella; deep-fried, sphere-shaped potato croquettes stuffed with spiced minced meat, topped with spicy bravas sauce or aioli and often paired with a cold drink.

Titaina

Originating from Valencia's maritime neighborhood of Cabanyal, tomato, pepper and pine nut pisto are combined with fine bonito mojarra (tuna fish) to produce a traditional stew; the dish can be eaten hot if you have it right after cooking, but it is more common to eat it cold.
